Make our services the services of love. This we ask in the name of your son, Jesus Christ. AMEN.

Officers may return to their seats.

Following the installation, the Regent invites the visiting State or National Officer to address assembly.

Regent: Close ceremony with the following meditation:

One of the happy mysteries of endings and beginnings in the Catholic Daughters of the Americas, seems to be what we take with us from one office to the next, or from one segment of our lives to the other so that earlier experiences do prepare us for experiences yet to come. Growth occurs when we respond to the life that is all around us, with openness and joy with reverence, with gratefulness, with care.

Life is a mystery and a gift from God. Membership in our Order places us in an atmosphere which is most conducive to a full understanding and appreciation of this mystery and this gift, especially the sharing of God's life – in the Eucharist here and in heaven hereafter.

Ceremonial Coordinator or newly installed Regent should invite those in attendance to remain for refreshments/lunch or to congratulate the new officers, following recessional.

Instructions given are basic instructions only. Local conditions may require modifications.
